Notes

Isaiah "Zerry" Collins, Jr.

Person note: Saponi

His nick name was Zerry.

He married Mary Polly Blackeley/Black March 31, 1829 in Hendrick County, Indiana.

NOTES From Pris Roberts:

1 Isaiah "Cuppy" Collins came to Missouri in 1843 and settled in Ozark Co. MO
2 He was married twice.

Rick J. Gunther 3/99 death date 11 August 1885 for Isaiah.

Most of the Collins settled in the eastern part of Taney County, Missouri, in areas later becoming part of eastern Ozark and Douglas Counties. Migration eastward into Howell Co., occurred by 1860. This area was settled by four of five brothers, descendants of David Collins 1750. Their names were Aaron 1772, Levi 1784, Solomon 1789, and Isaiah 1791. The other brother David 1774, settled just south of Bakersfield, MO in IZARD County in an area that later became a part of Fulton Co., Arkansas on the North Fork River. notes from Virginia Pinney

Bio: Isaiah "Cuppy" Collins, 1788, with several sons and grandsons settles in an area south of Hammonds Mill in Ozark Co., MO in 1843, west and southwest of Dora, Ozark, MO. Eventually his descendants were settled on both east and west sides of the North Fork river. Some of his descendants eventually settled north of Twin Bridges in Douglas Co.. His sons were Isaiah 1808, Lexington 1809, David C. 1815, William 1821, Isaac 1829, Ephraim 1834 and Franklin 1826. He also had several daughters. Lexington 1809 stayed in Bell Co., KY, and many of his descendants still live in the area. Isaiah 1788 was buried in the Parsons Cem, South of Dora, Ozark, MO. (Marvin Oaks)

An interesting thing about the Tombstone of Isaiah "Cuppy" Collins in the Parson Cemetery, is that he shares it with his son Ephraim.

Hi Scott- My notes on Leonard and Milley came from his Pension application where he states that they married in Douglas County Missouri, but marriage papers were burned during the civil war. I must have a copy of something because I note that the J.P. who performed the marriage ceremony for Leonard and Milley was Wm. Turnbull.
